Subject: English

Class: 4

Topic: Characters and Setting

Levels: Basic, Intermediate, Advanced

Level: Basic

1. The person or animal a story is about is called a _____.

2. The place and time where a story happens is the _____.

3. If Arjun is playing in a park in Mumbai, the setting is _____.

4. True or False: A talking parrot can be a character in a story. [?]

5. Identify the character: 'Ravi wore his school uniform and picked up his bag.' Character: _____

6. Identify the setting: 'The golden sands of the Thar Desert stretched for miles.' Setting: _____

7. A character who is kind and helps others is a (Good / Bad) character.

8. Which of these is a setting? (A) Meera (B) A busy market in Delhi ?

9. If a story starts with 'Once upon a time in a dark forest,' the setting is a _____.

10. Draw a ? if the setting is 'Daytime' or a ? if the setting is 'Rainy'.

Subject: English

Class: 4

Topic: Characters and Setting

Levels: Basic, Intermediate, Advanced

Level: Intermediate

1. List two words to describe a brave character like Rani Lakshmibai: _____, _____.

2. How does the setting change if a character moves from a noisy city to a quiet village? _____

3. Character Trait: If Amit shares his sweets with everyone, he is _____.

4. Which symbol best represents a scary setting like an old, empty house? [? / ? / ?]

5. Name a character from your favorite Indian folktale: _____.

6. If the setting is a cricket stadium with 50,000 fans, the mood is (Quiet / Exciting).

7. A character's 'dialogue' is what the character _____.

8. Match the character to the setting: A fisherman is usually found at the _____. ?

9. In a story, the 'Protagonist' is usually the (Main / Side) character.

10. If a character feels very hot and thirsty, the setting might be _____.

Subject: English

Class: 4

Topic: Characters and Setting

Levels: Basic, Intermediate, Advanced

Level: Advanced

1. How can a rainy setting (?) change the way a character feels? _____

2. Describe the setting of a bustling Indian bazaar using two senses (Smell/Sound): _____

3. Create a character: Name: _____, Favorite Food: _____, One Secret: _____.

4. If a story is set in the year 2080 on Mars, is this a (Past / Future) setting? _____

5. Write a sentence showing a character is 'Angry' without using the word 'Angry': _____

6. Why is the setting important in a mystery story? _____

7. Compare two characters: How is a King different from a Farmer? _____

8. If the setting is a classroom, name three items you would see: _____, _____, _____.

9. Change the setting: If 'The Jungle Book' happened in a City, would Mowgli be safe? Why? _____

10. Design a hero character: What is their special power? ? _____